

Protect Vulnerable Slum Children

Child Care Mongolian Slums

16th and 17th khoroos of Sukhbaatar District

FY19 Annual Update

Programme Profile

Programme Goal	Children in vulnerable families to be better cared and protected within their community
Programme Outcome	#1	Most vulnerable children are provided with basic care
	#2	Community is sensitized to care for the vulnerable children and their communities
	TOTAL DIRECT AND INDIRECT BENEFICIARIES	761

Programme Impact

Progress in Access to Basic Needs

- 107 households received food package support which included flour – 25kg, rice – 10kg, brown rice – 3kg, noodles – 3kg, sugar – 3kg, vegetable oil – 2l and dried milk – 2kg and 42 households who meet criteria received raw coal
- 7 homeless households with 25 children were supported by 5 walled gers
- 53 children without basic school supplies were provided school uniforms and school bags.

Food support for grateful households

Warmth and Coal support for winter

Ger Support

Nandin-Erdene's family. He lives with his 3 children. 1 year ago his wife died. Their children 2, 3, 5 years old.

Munkhgal's family. He lives with his wife and their 3 children. Their daughter is disabled.

Progress in Children's Health

- 137 children were screened with dental health issues, 93.4% received treatment
- 58 children accessed medical treatment and follow up from health screening
- 69 children were referred to the tertiary level hospitals for detailed checkup and diagnosis.
- 127 children accessed health screening for eye, ear, teeth, nose, throat, and surgery and medical test of biochemist and Vitamin D deficiency.
- 135 community members were trained on nutrition, child care, hygiene trainings
- 68 children participated on hygiene and total sanitation training
- 20 children were diagnosed with mental health needs and provided care
- 79 parents attended 3 module training about positive discipline for children and improving family relationship
- 2 psychologists worked with communities on supporting child well being

Dental treatment

Medical check-up

Progress in Community Partnerships for Slum Children and partners

- 193 children and 105 parents benefited from:
 - Established partnerships with
 - Sukhbaatar district Governor’s Office, Family, Child and Youth Development Department,
 - 16th and 17th khoros administration,
 - Family clinics,
 - Joint Committee under the Mongolian Evangelical Alliance, churches in target communities
 - Trained Home Visitors and engaged 15 community people in child monitoring and protection, Home Visitor approaches, Positive Discipline and Child protection, Helping alcohol addicted family and the referral and reporting system.
 - 22 trainers had enhanced capacity on healthy and age appropriate child raising methods, understanding and respecting the individual needs of each family member
 - Churches Implemented 3 micro-projects and seven activities for the well-being and development of children based on their local resources

Thank you for caring for us across the miles and meeting our needs

